

Place Totem

The ClientController validates locally (wrong turn, tile occupied, tile doesn't exist) before sending the action to the server.
The server validates the action, places the totem and notifies all clients with the updated board.
The loop repeats until all players have placed their totem, then the game transitions to OfferTileResolutionState.

